Summary

I am a computer science graduate with a passion for creating Web Applications using JavaScript. I am proficient in React Js and its framework (Next js) and possess knowledge about Client Side Rendering (CSR), Server Side Rendering (SSR), Static Site Generation (SSG) and Incremental Static Site Generation (ISSG). When it comes to Rest APIs, I am well acquainted with fetch and axios, but can also integrate GraphQL backend using Apollo Client with front-end.

When considering backend development, I tend to go with Node Js and Express Js coupled with MongoDB, I am well versed in JWT for role based authentication, Rest APIs as well as GraphQL, Cloudinary, Multer for file uploads and Stripe for payment gateways. In addition, I can work with Git for version control.
